OUR STORY

BEYOND A TRAVEL AGENCY... YOUR TRUSTED PARTNERS IN PERU.

Founded by Milagros and Israel, Peru Friendly Travel was established through a combination of industry experience, professional dedication, and a passion for Peru. After several years working in the tourism sector, they identified the opportunity to create a travel company with a more personal, human, and tailored approach.

From the beginning, their purpose has been clear: to support travelers before, during, and after every journey, providing not only well-organized itineraries but also reliability, assistance, and personalized attention at every stage of the trip.

Today, Peru Friendly Travel is a DMC specializing in Peru and South America, working with travelers and professional travel agencies from different countries. Its local expertise, network of strategic partners, and commitment to quality enable the company to design authentic, safe, and memorable journeys.
